

1 9. DEFINITIONS

2 alien: A person born in a foreign country, who owes his allegiance to that country; one not a citizen or national of the country
3 in which he is living. A RESIDENT ALIEN is a person admitted to permanent resident status in the country by the 4 immigration authorities but who has not been granted citizenship.

5 An alien is a “person” within the meaning of the due process clause of the Fourteenth Amendment. 347 U.S. 522,
6 530. And alienage is treated as a “suspect” classification for purposes of equal protection analysis. For example, the 7 Supreme Court has invalidated statutes that prevent aliens from entering a state’s civil service and from receiving 8 educational benefits. But where a job is “bound up with the operation of the State as a governmental entity”—
9 policemen and public school teachers, for example—states may exclude aliens. 441 U.S. 68, 73.³

10 burden of proof: A rule of evidence that makes a person prove a certain thing or the contrary will be assumed by the court. For 11 example, in criminal trials, the prosecution has the burden of proving the accused guilt because innocence is 12 presumed.

13 citizen of the United States: — defined in 8 U.S.C. §1401. In the context of federal statutes: Means a person born or 14 naturalized in the federal United States (federal zone) and a subject citizen of Congress. Typically, the U.S.
15 government allows “nationals”, who are persons born outside the federal zone and inside the 50 states to declare that
16 they are “U.S. citizens” so that they can volunteer to become completely subject to the jurisdiction of the federal 17 courts and become the proper subjects of the Internal Revenue Code, but technically, they are not “U.S. citizens” in 18 the context of federal statutes as legally defined. “U.S. citizens” are possessors of statutory ‘civil’ rights and 19 privileges granted by Congress and stipulated by statute, code or regulation, found mostly in 48 U.S.C. §1421b. In 20 the context of the Constitution and the rulings of the U.S. Supreme Court: A “national of the United States” born in 21 any one of the states of the Union and not on federal territory and defined under 8 U.S.C. §1408 .

22 claim: the assertion of a right to money or property; the aggregate of operative facts giving rise to a right enforceable in the 23 courts. A claim must show the existence of a right, an injury, and a prayer for damages. In tax cases, this means that 24 the petitioner who is litigating against wrongful taking of taxes must show a law or Constitutional right that has been 25 violated in the process of illegally taking taxes, a harm or injury that is quantifiable because of that taking, such that 26 the court can award damages against the IRS. Otherwise, the tax case will be dismissed without prejudice because it
27 lacks merit. Naïve and inexperienced tax freedom advocates who represent themselves in court as pro se litigants
28 quite commonly do not specify a claim upon which they can base their case and usually end up being assessed
29 attorney fees and having their case dismissed by the courts.

30 coercion: “Compulsion; constraint; compelling by force or arms or threat. General Motors v. Belvins, D.C.Colo., 144 F.Supp.
31 381, 384. It may be actual, direct, or positive, as where physical force is used to compel act against one’s will, or 32 implied, legal or constructive, as where one party is constrained by subjugation to another to do what his free will 33 would refuse. As used in testamentary law, any pressure by which testator’s action is restrained against his free will 34 in the execution of his testament. “Coercion” that vitiates confession can be mental as well as physical, and question
35 is whether accused was deprived of his free choice to admit, deny, or refuse to answer. Garrity v. State of N.J., 36 U.S.N.J., 385 U.S. 493, 87 S.Ct. 616, 618, 17 L.Ed.2d 562.

37 A person is guilty of criminal coercion if, with purpose to unlawfully restrict another’s freedom of action to his
38 detriment, he threatens to: (a) commit any criminal offense; or (b) accuse anyone of a criminal offense; or (c) expose
39 any secret tending to subject any person to hatred, contempt or ridicule, or to impair his credit or business repute; or 40 (d) take or withhold action as an official, or cause an official to take or withhold action. Model Penal Code, §212.5.

color: “Pretense of official right to do an act made by one who has no such right. An act under color of office is an act of any officer who claims authority to do the act by reason of his own office when the office does not confer on him any such authority.” [Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition]

color of office: “A claim or assumption of right to do an act by virtue of an office, made by a person who is legally destitute of such right.” Feller v. Gates, 40 Or. 543, 67 P. 416, 56 L.R.S. 630, 91 Am.St.Rep. 492. [Black’s Law Dictionary, 4th Edition]

common right: Right derivative from common law. Strother v. Lucas, 37 U.S. (12 Pet.) 410, 437, 9 L.Ed. 1137. Right peculiar to certain people is not a common right. Perdue v. Zoning Bd. Of Appeals of the City of Norwalk, 118 Conn. 174, 171 A. 26, 28. [Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition] compel: The following definitions are offered for the word compel. These definitions bear directly on any arguments having to do with the exercise of 5th Amendment rights as it pertains to the filing of income tax returns :

Black’s Law Dictionary defines the word “compel” as follows:

“To urge forcefully, under extreme pressure. The word ‘compel’ as used in constitutional right to be free from being compelled in a criminal case to be a witness against one’s self means to be subjected to some coercion, fear, terror, inducement, trickery or threat—either physically or psychologically, blatantly or subtly; the hallmark of compulsion is the presence of some operative force producing an involuntary response. U.S. v. Escandar, C.A. Fla., 465 F.2d 438, 442”

The Random House Dictionary of the English Language defines “compel” as follows:

“1. To force, drive, esp. to a course of action. 2. To secure or bring about by force. 3. To force to submit; subdue. 4. To overpower.”

definition: A description of a thing by its properties; an explanation of the meaning of a word or term. The process of stating the exact meaning of a word by means of other words. Such a description of the thing defined, including all essential elements and excluding all nonessential, as to distinguish it from all other things and classes." [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, page 423] discovery: The term used to describe various methods for obtaining evidence in advance of trial, including such things as interrogatories, depositions and various motions to permit the inspection of documents etc.

distrain: the act or process of distraint, whereby a person (the DISTRAINOR), without prior court approval, seizes the personal property of another located upon the distrainer's land in satisfaction of a claim, as a pledge for the performance of a duty, or in reparation of an injury. Where goods are seized in satisfaction of a claim, the distrainer can hold the goods until the claim is paid and, failing payment, may sell them in satisfaction. Originally, distress was a landlord's remedy (see lien [LANDORD'S LIEN], 324 A.2d 102, 104) and was distinguishable from attachment, which is a court-ordered seizure of goods or property. The persons whose goods are distrained upon has recourse against the wrongful distrainer in replevin.

Distrain has been superseded in most states of the United States by statutory provisions for debt collection, the enforcement of security interests, and landlord-tenant relations.

donation: A gift. A transfer of the title of property to one who receives it without paying for it. The act by which the owner of a thing voluntarily transfers the title and possession of the same from himself to another person, without any consideration. [Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, page 487] due process: administering of law through courts of justice in accordance with established and sanctioned legal principles and procedures, and with safeguards for the protection of individual rights. As determined by custom and law, due process has become a guarantee of civil as well as criminal rights. In the United States, the phrase due process first appears in the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, ratified in 1791. Because the amendment refers specifically to federal and not state actions, another amendment was necessary to include the states. This was accomplished by the 14th Amendment, ratified in 1868. Thus was established at both federal and state levels that no person "shall be deprived of life, liberty, or property without due process of law." The guarantee of due process requires that no person be deprived of life, liberty, or property without a fair and adequate process. In criminal proceedings this guarantee includes the fundamental aspects of a fair trial, including the right to adequate notice in advance of the trial, the right to counsel, the right to confront and cross-examine witnesses, the right to refuse self-incriminating testimony, and the right to have all elements of the crime proven beyond a reasonable doubt.

duress: "Any unlawful threat or coercion used by a person to induce another to act (or to refrain from acting) in a manner he or she otherwise would not (or would). Subjecting person to improper pressure which overcomes his will and coerces him to comply with demand to which he would not yield if acting as free agent. Head v. Gadsden Civil Service Bd., Ala.Civ.App., 389 So.2d 516, 519. Application of such pressure or constraint as compels man to go against his will, and takes away his free agency, destroying power of refusing to comply with unjust demands of another. Haumont v. Security State Bank, 220 Neb. 809, 374 N.W.2d 2,6.

A contract entered into under duress by physical compulsion is void. Also, if a party's manifestation of assent to a contract is induced by an improper threat by the other party that leaves the victim no reasonable alternative, the contract is voidable by the victim. Restatement, Second, Contracts §§174, 175.

As a defense to a civil action, it must be pleaded affirmatively. Fed.R.Civil P. 8(c).

As an affirmative defense in criminal law, one who, under the pressure of an unlawful threat from another human being to harm him (or to harm a third person), commits what would otherwise be a crime may, under some circumstances, be justified in doing what he did and thus not be guilty of the crime in question. See Model Penal Code §2.09. See also Coercion; Economic duress; Extortion; Undue influence."
[Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 504]

employee: (see 26 U.S.C. §3401(c)) For purposes of this chapter, the term "employee" includes an officer, employee, or elected official of the United States, a State, or any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, or any agency or instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing. The term "employee" also includes an officer of a corporation. Refer to section 3.6.1.1 for further explanation.

employer: (see 26 U.S.C. §3401(d)). For purposes of this chapter, the term "employer" means the person for whom an individual performs or performed any service, of whatever nature, as the employee of such person, except that -

(1) if the person for whom the individual performs or performed the services does not have control of the payment of the wages for such services, the term "employer" (except for purposes of subsection (a)) means the person having control of the payment of such wages, and

(2) in the case of a person paying wages on behalf of a nonresident alien individual, foreign partnership, or foreign corporation, not engaged in trade or business within the United States, the term "employer" (except for purposes of subsection (a)) means such person.

extortion under the color of office:

"...Unlawful taking by any officer by color of his office, of any money or thing of value, that is not due to him, or more than is due or before it is due." 4 Bla.Comm. 141; Com. v. Saulsbury, 152 Pa. 554, 25 A. 610; U.S. v. Denver, D.C.N.C. 14 F. 595; Bush v. State, 19 Ariz. 195, 168 P. 508, 509..."Obtaining property from another, induced by wrongful use of force or fear, OR under color of official right." See *State v. FOIA: The Freedom Of Information Act. FOIA is the secret key to unlock a vast amount of information, especially information about you. Thanks to this act, everyday citizens have access to records, files, and other information just for the asking. Of course you are required to use the proper format in your request, but extremely valuable information can be obtained by using this simple procedure that very few use. The IRS, for instance, keeps literally countless secret files on citizens (law-abiding or not) of the United States. Most folks would be interested in knowing

1 what kind of information is being kept on them by the government. By using FOIA, you can find out what they know
2 what they don't.... in addition to protecting yourself and building your case against them.

3 foreign country: IRS Pub 54, Year 2000, page 12, defines this term as follows:

4 “A foreign country usually is any territory (including the air space and territorial waters) under the sovereignty of a
5 government other than that of the United States.... The term ‘foreign country’ does not include Puerto Rico, Guam,
6 the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, the Virgin Islands, or U.S. possessions such as American
7 Samoa.”

8 You will note that this definition is consistent with 26 U.S.C. §7701, which defines “United States” as the District of 9 Columbia and the States” and “State” as the District of Columbia. Another way of stating this is that the “U.S.”
10 includes only the “federal zone” as used in the tax code and as described in section 4.7. With this definition in mind,
11 the 50 states of the United States of America are considered as foreign countries while any federal possession or 12 territory is considered part of the “federal zone”.

13 Foreign government: “The government of the United States of America, as distinguished from the government of the several 14 states.” (Black’s Law Dictionary, 5th Edition; removed from the Sixth and Seventh Editions by a legal profession that 15 wants to hide the truth and sell you into slavery to the U.S. government by unlawfully extending the jurisdiction for 16 personal income taxes outside the federal zone.)

17 Foreign Laws: “The laws of a foreign country or sister state.” (Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition)

18 Foreign States: “Nations outside of the United States...Term may also refer to another state; i.e. a sister state. The term 19 ‘foreign nations’, ...should be construed to mean all nations and states other than that in which the action is brought;
20 and hence, one state of the Union is foreign to another, in that sense.” (Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition)

21 forum: Lat. A court of justice, or judicial tribunal; a place of jurisdiction; a place of litigation; an administrative body.
22 Particular place where judicial or administrative remedy is pursued. See also Venue. (Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth 23 Edition). The federal district, circuit, and Supreme courts and the “federal zone” constitute the forum within which 24 the government of the United States operates and exercises exclusive jurisdiction. In more limited cases, it also has 25 jurisdiction in criminal matters that involve multiple states.

26 income: Below is the definition, taken from the Supreme Court case of Eisner v. Macomber, 252 U.S. 189 (1920) and the 27 definition found in Bouvier’s Law Dictionary:

28 ‘Income may be defined as the gain derived from capital, from labor, or from both combined,’ provided it be
29 understood to include profit gained through a sale or conversion of capital assets, to which it was applied in the

31 Internal Revenue Service: The current name of the “Bureau of Internal Revenue” (BIR) of Puerto Rico. The “Federal Alcohol
32 Administration” created on 8-29-1935, 49 Stat. 977; 27 U.S.C. § 201, was abolished and absorbed in the BIR on 4-2-33 1940 by Reorganization Plan No. III of 1940, 5 F.R. (Federal Register) 2107, 54 Stat. 1232, set out in the Appendix
34 to Title 5, Government Organization and Employees. Department of the Treasury Order (TDO) 221 of July 1, 1972, 35 established the BATF and transferred to it the alcohol and functions of the Internal Revenue Service. Public law 97-
36 258 §5(b), Sept 13, 1982, 96 Stat. 1068, 1085 repealed §2 of the 1940 Reorganization Plan No III and the first
37 section of which enacted Title 31, Money and Finance. Reference: US Statues at Large and 27 U.S.C. §201

38 levy, n: A seizure. The obtaining of money by legal process through seizure and sale of property; the raising of the money for 39 which an execution has been issued.

40 The process whereby a sheriff or other state official empowered by writ or other judicial directive actually seizes, or 41 otherwise brings within her control, a judgment debtor's property which is taken to secure or satisfy the judgment.

42 In reference to taxation, the word may mean the legislative function and declaration of the subject and rate or 43 amount of taxation. People v. Mahoney, 13 Cal.2d 729, 91 P.2d 1029; or the rate of taxation rather than the physical 44 act of applying the rate to the property, Lowden v. Texas County Excise Board, 187 Okl. 365 103 P.2d 98, 100; or the

1 formal order, by proper authority declaring property subject to taxation at fixed rate at its assessed valuation, State v.
 2 Davis, 335 Mo. 159, 73 S.W.2d 406, 407; or the ministerial function of assessing, listing and extending taxes, City of
 3 Plankinton v. Kieffer, 70 S.D. 329, 17 N.W.2d 494, 495, 496; or the extension of the tax, Day v. Inland Steel Co., 185
 4 Minn. 53, 239 N.W. 776, 777; or the doing of whatever is necessary in order to authorize the collector to collect the 5 tax, Syracuse Trust Co. v. Board of Sup'rs of Oneida County, 13 N.Y.S.2d 390, 394. When used in connection with 6 authority to tax, denotes exercise of legislative function, whether state or local, determining that a tax shall be imposed
 7 and fixing amount, purpose and subject of the exaction. Carkonen v. Williams, 76 Wash.2d 617, 458 P.2d 280, 286.

11 lien: A claim, encumbrance, or charge on property for payment of some debt, obligation or duty. Sullins v. Sullins, 6
 12 Wash.2d 283, 396 P.2d 886, 888. Qualified right of property which a creditor has in or over specific property of his 13 debtor, as security for the debt or charge or for performance of some act. Right or claim against some interest in 14 property created by law as an incident of contract. Right to enforce charge upon property of another for payment or 15 satisfaction of debt or claim. Vaughan v. John Hancock Mut. Life Ins. Co., Tex.Civ.App., 61 S.W.2d 189, 190.
 16 Right to retain property for payment of debt or demand. Bell v. Dennis, 43 N.M. 350, 93 P.2d 1003, 1006. Security

 19 Spirituous Liquors, D.C.Mo., 60 F.Supp. 389, 392. Liens are "property rights". In re Pennsylvania Central Brewing
 20 Co., C.C.A.Pa., 114 F.2d 1010, 1013. The word "lien" is a generic term and, standing alone, includes liens acquired 21 by contract or by operation of law. Egyptian Supply Co. v. Boyd, C.C.A.Ky., 117 F.2d 608, 612.

22 A charge against or interest in property to secure payment of a debt or performance of an obligation. Bankruptcy
 23 Code §101.

24 Lien by operation of law. Where the law itself, without the stipulation of the parties, raises a lien, as an implication
 25 or legal consequence from the relation of the parties or the circumstances of their dealings. Liens of this species may 26 arise either under the rules of common law or of equity or under a statute. In the first case they are called "common - 27 law liens;" in the second, "equitable liens;" in the third, "statutory liens."

28 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 922]

29 national: means a person born or naturalized outside the federal United States (federal zone) but inside the country United 30 States and who is subject to the political but not legislative jurisdiction of the federal government at the time of birth
 31 as the Fourteenth Amendment (illegally ratified) requires. Synonymous with "American Citizen", "American 32 National", "Natural Born Sovereign Citizen", or "nonresident alien". Typically, the U.S. government allows and even 33 encourages "nationals" to incorrectly declare that they are "U.S. citizens" so that they can volunteer to become 34 completely subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the federal courts and become the proper subjects of the Internal 35 Revenue Code, but technically, they are not "U.S. citizens" as legally defined. 8 U.S.C. §1452, and 8 U.S.C.
 36 §1101\(a\)\(22\)\(B\) define who are "nationals". The following code section from 8 U.S.C. §1101\(a\)\(22\)\(B\) defines the 37 type of "national" that most Americans born in the 50 union states outside of the federal zone qualify as. It is 38 highlighted to bring attention to it:

39 TITLE 8 > CHAPTER 12 > SUBCHAPTER 1 > Sec. 1101.
 40 Sec. 1101. - Definitions

41 (a) As used in this chapter -

42 (22) The term "national of the United States" means

43 (A) a citizen of the United States, or

44 (B) a person who, though not a citizen of the United States, owes permanent allegiance to the United States.

45 Note that the "United States" term as used in the above section refers to the federal United States, also called the 46 "federal zone". 8 U.S.C. §1401 indicates that all "citizens and nationals of the United States" are also "nationals of the United States". 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(22) indicates that not all "nationals" are also "U.S. citizens". Throughout this book, when we use the term "national", we mean either a "citizen, but not a national, of the United States" as described in 8 U.S.C. §1452 and 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(22)(B).

occupations of "common right": Any profession you can choose to do or undertake in private industry in any field or trade (even if its for the government) and which do not depend on the authority granted you as part of a political office, being either elected or appointed. Occupations that are not of common right are things you can only do as an officer or politician working for a government agency by virtue of the rights and privileges granted to you as a consequence of your election or appointment to that political office and the authority delegated to you by the law itself. See the case of Simms. v. Ahrens (271 SW 720) for further details.

prima facie: On its face; not requiring further support to establish existence, validity, credibility, etc. An example of this would be an allegation or assertion made by the IRS against a citizen that is never refuted. Therefore, when any kind of assertion or allegation is made that is incorrect, it is important to deny the assertion or it will often be accepted as undisputed fact by the court.

illegal tax protester: A person who resists illegally the paying of appropriate taxes. As of January 1, 1999, the U.S. Congress has eliminated the ability of the IRS to designate a taxpayer as an "illegal tax protester". Here is a part of the IRS Restructuring and Reform Act of 1998 that talks about this (form the website at <http://www.irs.gov/>):

Background: The IRS designates individuals who meet certain criteria as "illegal tax protestors" in the IRS Master File. Congress was concerned that taxpayers may be unfairly stigmatized by a designation as an illegal tax protester.

C. Change(s):

1. The IRS shall not designate any more taxpayers as "illegal tax protesters." Removal of existing "illegal tax protester" designations from the individual master file is not required to begin before January 1, 1999.
2. IRS personnel must disregard any designation in a taxpayer's file (i.e., revenue agents report or other paper records) as of the date of enactment.
3. As of the date of enactment, IRS personnel should not describe taxpayers in written documents as "illegal tax protesters."
4. The IRS may designate appropriate taxpayers as nonfilers. The IRS must remove the nonfiler designation once the taxpayer has filed valid tax returns for two consecutive years and paid all taxes shown on these returns.

D. Impact: The provision requires reprogramming master file databases.

Law: that which is laid down, ordained, or established. A rule or method according to which phenomenon or actions co-exist or follow each other. Law, in its generic sense, is a body of rules of action or conduct prescribed by the sovereign within a jurisdiction, and having binding legal force. United States Fidelity and Guaranty Co. v. Guenther, 281 U.S. 34, 50 S.Ct. 165, 74 L.Ed. 683. That which must be obeyed and followed by citizens subject to sanctions or legal consequences is a law. Law is a solemn expression of the will of the supreme power, which is the ultimate "sovereign", of the State. Calif.Civil Code, §22. The "law" of a state is to be found in its statutory and constitutional enactments, as interpreted by its courts, and, in absence of statute law, in rulings of its courts. Dauer's Estate v. Zabel, 9 Mich.App. 176, 156 N.W.2d 34, 37.

In the United States of America, the People, both collectively and individually are the "sovereigns" , according to the Supreme Court:

- Chisholm, Ex'r. v. Georgia, 2 Dall. (U.S.) 419, 1 L.ed. 454, 457, 471, 472) (1794): "From the differences existing between feudal sovereignties and Government founded on compacts, it necessarily follows that their respective prerogatives must differ. Sovereignty is the right to govern; a nation or State-sovereign is the person or persons in whom that resides. In Europe the sovereignty is generally ascribed to the Prince; here it rests with the people; there, the sovereign actually administers the Government; here, never in a single instance; our Governors are the agents of the people, and at most stand in the same relation to their sovereign, in which regents in Europe stand to their sovereigns. Their Princes have personal powers, dignities, and pre-eminences, our rulers have none but official; nor do they partake in the sovereignty otherwise, or in any other capacity, than as private citizens."

- 1 • Juilliard v. Greenman, 110 U.S. 421 (1884): “There is no such thing as a power of inherent sovereignty in the 2 government of the United States...In this country sovereignty resides in the people, and Congress can exercise
3 no power which they have not, by their Constitution entrusted [delegated] to it. All else is withheld.”
- 4 • Perry v. U.S., 294 U.S. 330 (1935): “In the United States, sovereignty resides in the people...the Congress
5 cannot invoke sovereign power of the People to override their will as thus declared.”
- 6 • Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886): “Sovereignty itself is, of course, not subject to law, for it is the 7 author and source of law...While sovereign powers are delegated to...the government, sovereignty itself
8 remains with the people.”

9 Therefore, the People are the authors of the law as the “sovereign” or supreme power of the state. The law constitutes 10 essentially a binding written legal agreement or contract among the sovereigns to conduct their affairs according to 11 some standard of conduct. The sovereign is never the proper subject or object of most laws, unless he violates the 12 contract and thereby injures the equal rights of other fellow sovereigns. Instead, the servants of the sovereign People
13 working in government are the main object and subject of most civil laws, and laws are enacted mainly with the 14 purpose to delegate and confine the authority of public servants so that they do not injure or undermine the rights of 15 the true sovereigns, the People. Furthermore, only statutes which have been enacted into “positive law” are 16 considered binding upon all persons within the jurisdiction of the law. The legislative notes under 1 U.S.C. §204
17 indicate that the Internal Revenue Code is not “positive law”, and therefore it can only be described as “special law”
18 or “private international law” (contractual law) applying to specific persons. Subtitle A of the I.R.C., in fact, is limited
19 mainly to those engaged in a “trade or business” and who work for the U.S. government as Trustees. The Internal 20 Revenue Code cannot be described either as “law” or “positive law” unless and until:

- 21 1. The IRC is first enacted into “positive law” by a majority of the representatives of the sovereign People. This 22 provides evidence that they voluntarily consented to enforcement actions required to implement the law.
23 Without such consent, no enforcement actions may be attempted, because according to the Declaration of 24 Independence, all just powers of government derive from the consent of the governed.
- 25 2. Regulations must be written by the Treasury for the enforcement provisions of the enacted positive law, and 26 these regulations must be published in the Federal Register. This puts the public on notice of the enforcement
27 actions that will be attempted against them in enforcing the law, as required by the Fifth Amendment due 28 process clauses.
- 29 3. The enforcement regulations are then incorporated into the Code of Federal Regulations, Title 26.
- 30 4. Delegation of authority orders are written for all the enforcement agents within the Internal Revenue Service 31 authorizing them to conduct enforcement actions.
- 32 5. The enforcement agents must be designated as enforcement agents by receiving a black enforcement Pocket
33 Commission and being specially trained and commissioned as “public trust” employees.

34 Unless and until all of the above have occurred, the Internal Revenue Code, according to 1 U.S.C. §204 cannot be 35 described as “law” and can only be described as “prima facie evidence of law”, which is simply “presumptive”
36 evidence of law. That means that it may be rebutted. Since “presumption” causes prejudice and prejudice is anathema
37 to any legal proceeding and violates due process of law, then the Internal Revenue Code is not admissible as evidence
38 of “law”, which means that it does not furnish any evidence that the people ever consented to its enforcement against 39 them. Consequently, it is unenforceable. Until it becomes “positive law”, it can only be described as a “code”, or a 40 “statute”, but not as “law”.

41 pseudotaxes — a term identifying revenues to the U.S. government derived from Subtitles A and C of the Internal Revenue
42 Code and collected from nonresident aliens who are not in fact and indeed: 1. Engaged in the excise taxable activity
43 called a “trade or business”, which is defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(26) as “the functions of a public office”; 2. Have 44 no income from the District of Columbia; 3. Do not have a domicile in the District of Columbia. For everyone
45 meeting this criteria, the revenues collected under the authority of I.R.C. Subtitles A and C are not “taxes” as legally 46 defined, but an unconstitutional abuse of federal taxing power. Public servants in the government love to call such 47 revenues “taxes” in order to deceive the people and lend undeserved dignity to the THEFT that enforcing such a 48 system against improper parties amounts to. This is covered in Great IRS Hoax sections 5.1.2 earlier.

49 resident: under the Internal Revenue Code, an “alien” who is domiciled within either the District of Columbia or the territories
50 of the United States. This “individual” has a “res” that is “identified” within federal jurisdiction, which is limited
51 under the Internal Revenue Code to the District of Columbia and territories or possessions of the United States

1 identified in Title 48 of the U.S. Code. Federal territories are generally identified with the term “State” in the U.S.
 2 Code, while states of the Union are identified with a lower case “state” in the U.S. Code and are treated as “foreign
 3 states”. “Residents” live exclusively in federal “States” but not in “states” of the Union and therefore are not
 4 protected by the Bill of Rights within the Constitution as per Downes v. Bidwell, 182 U.S. 244 (1901). Pursuant to 5 26 CFR §1.1441(c)(3)(i), an alien can be neither a “citizen” nor a “national” of the United States. The terms “alien”,
 6 “resident”, and “resident alien” are all synonymous in the Internal Revenue Code, as confirmed by 26 CFR §1.1-
 7 1(a)(2)(ii) and 26 CFR §1.1441-1(c)(3). “citizens of the United States” under 8 U.S.C. §1401 cannot legally be
 8 classified as “residents” under the Internal Revenue Code and are not authorized by the code to “elect” to be treated
 9 as one either. The reason is because the purpose of law is to protect, and a person cannot elect to lose their 10 constitutional rights and protection, even if they want to! However, by filing an IRS form 1040 or 1040A, they in 11 effect make this illegal election anyway, and the IRS looks the other way and does not prosecute such unintentional
 12 fraud because they benefit financially from it. The only way to avoid this election is to instead either file nothing or 13 to file a 1040NR form instead of a 1040 or 1040A form. The rules for electing to be treated as a resident are found in 14 IRS Publication 54: Tax Guide for U.S. citizens and Resident Aliens Abroad. See Great IRS Hoax, Section 4.10 for 15 further definition of this term and the following sections for amplification: 5.5.2, 5.5.3, and 5.4.12.

16 special law:

17 “One relating to particular persons or things; one made for individual cases or for particular places or districts; one
 18 operating upon a selected class, rather than upon the public generally. A private law. A law is “special” when it is 19 different from others of the same general kind or designed for a particular purpose, or limited in range or confined to 20 a prescribed field of action or operation. A “special law” relates to either particular persons, places, or things or to 21 persons, places, or things which, though not particularized, are separated by any method of selection from the whole
 22 class to which the law might, but not such legislation, be applied. Utah Farm Bureau Ins. Co. v. Utah Ins. Guaranty
 23 Ass’n, Utah, 564 P.2d 751, 754. A special law applies only to an individual or a number of individuals out of a 24 single class similarly situated and affected, or to a special locality. Board of County Comm’rs of Lemhi County v.
 25 Swensen, Idaho, 80 Idaho 198, 327 P.2d 361, 362. See also Private bill; Private law. Compare General law; Public 26 Law.”

27 [Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1398]

28 The Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C., Subtitle A, Income Taxes, for instance, is special law that applies ONLY
 29 to the District of Columbia and federal territories over which the United States government exercises exclusive
 30 legislative jurisdiction, but not including nonfederal areas within the borders of the several states. The U.S.
 31 Government, however, has done a fine job making the tax code LOOK like it is general law. Most Congressmen
 32 know this, of course, and if you write them to ask if the I.R.C. is special law, they have been known to try to avoid 33 answering or have given weasel-worded answers. See <http://www.supremelaw.org> and the case of People v. Boxer
 34 for more details on an example of this.

35 source of income: “Place where, or circumstances from which, income at issue is produced. Union Electric Co. v. Coale, 347
 36 Mo. 175, 146 S.W.2d 631, 635.” [Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, page 1395]

37 State: in the context of federal statutes, federal court rulings, and this book means a federal State of the United States, the 38 District of Columbia, Guam, Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands, Northern Marina Islands, and includes areas within the 39 external boundaries of a state owned by or ceded to the United States of America. Federal “States” are defined in 4
 40 U.S.C. §110(d) and 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(10). In the context of the U.S. Constitution only, “State” means a sovereign
 41 “state” as indicated below. The reason the constitution is different is because of who wrote it. The states wrote it so 42 they are capitalized. Federal statutes are not written by the sovereign states so they use the lower case “state” to 43 describe the sovereign 50 states, which are foreign and outside the territorial jurisdiction of the U.S. government.

44 “It is to be noted that the statute differentiates between States of the United States and foreign states by the use of a 45 capital S for the word when applied to a State of the United States”
 46 [Eisenberg v. Commercial Union Assurance Company, 189 F.Supp. 500 (1960)]

47 state: in the context of federal statutes, federal court rulings, and this book means a sovereign state of the Union of America
 48 under the Constitution for the United States of America 1789-1791. In the context of the U.S. Constitution only, 49 “State” means a sovereign “state” as defined here. Below is a further clarification of the meaning of “states” as defined by the U.S. Supreme Court in the case of O'Donoghue v. United States, 289 U.S. 516 (1933), where they define what is not a “state”:

After an exhaustive review of the prior decisions of this court relating to the matter, the following propositions, among others, were stated as being established:

'1. That the District of Columbia and the territories are not states within the judicial clause of the Constitution giving jurisdiction in cases between citizens of different states;

'2. That territories are not states within the meaning of Rev. St. 709, permitting writs of error from this court in cases where the validity of a state statute is drawn in question;

'3. That the District of Columbia and the territories are states as that word is used in treaties with foreign powers, with respect to the ownership, disposition, and inheritance of property:

'4. That the territories are not within the clause of the Constitution providing for the creation of a supreme court and such inferior courts as Congress may see fit to establish.'

Below is a summary of the meanings of “state” and “State” in the context of both federal and state laws:

Table 9-1: Summary of meaning of "state" and "State"

Law	Federal constitution	Federal statutes	Federal regulations	State constitutions	State statutes	State regulations
Author	Union States/ "We The People"	Federal Government		"We The People"	State Government
"state"	Foreign country	Union state	Union state	Other Union state or federal government	Other Union state or federal government	Other Union state or federal government
"State"	Union state	Federal state	Federal state	Union state	Union state	Union state
"in this State" or "in the State" ⁴	NA	NA	NA	NA	Federal enclave within state	Federal enclave within state
"State" ⁵ (State Revenue and taxation code only)	NA	NA	NA	NA	Federal enclave within state	Federal enclave within state

So what the above table clearly shows is that the word “State” in the context of federal statutes and regulations means (not includes!) federal States only under Title 48 of the U.S. Code⁶, and these areas do not include any of the 50 Union States. The word “state” in the context of federal statutes and regulations means one of the 50 union states, which are “foreign sovereigns”, “foreign states”, and “foreign countries” with respect to the federal government as clearly explained later in section 5.2.11 of this book. In the context of the above, a “Union State” means one of the 50 states of the United States* (the country, not the federal United States).

8 U.S.C. §1408(2), and are indirectly referenced under The Law of Nations, Book I, section 215.

28 “taxes”, as legally defined, are a mandatory payment to the government exacted by operation of law which is not
29 voluntary and which support only the government. If the monies paid can be used for wealth transfer or supporting 30 private persons or organizations, then they do not qualify as “taxes”, according to the U.S. Supreme Court

31 To lay, with one hand, the power of the government on the property of the citizen, and with the other to bestow it
32 upon favored individuals to aid private enterprises and build up private fortunes, is none the less a robbery because 33 it is done under the forms of law and is called taxation. This is not legislation. It is a decree under legislative 34 forms.

35 Nor is it taxation. ‘A tax,’ says Webster’s Dictionary, ‘is a rate or sum of money assessed on the person or property

38 Coulter, J., in Northern Liberties v. St. John’s Church, 13 Pa. St., 104 says, very forcibly, ‘I think the common mind
39 has everywhere taken in the understanding that taxes are a public imposition, levied by authority of the government
40 for the purposes of carrying on the government in all its machinery and operations—that they are imposed for a

45 “Taxes” which are paid voluntarily and/or which are spent on wealth transfer or to support private purposes are 46 referred to as “donations”, and when their payment is enforced, they are called “extortion”.

47 Tax Class: A one digit number indicating the type of tax that a tax falls under. This number appears in the Individual Master
48 File (IMF) maintained by the taxpayer. This number or digit is the third digit of the DLN, or Document Locator
49 Number, assigned to each document that is entered in an Individual Master File. The Tax Class codes are as follows:

1	0 = IRAF
2	1 = Withholding and Social Security
3	2 = Individual Income Tax
4	3 = Corporate Income Tax
5	4 = Excise Tax
6	5 = Estate and Gift Tax
7	7 = CT-1
8	8 = FUTA

This number appears throughout the IRS' IMF file maintained on each individual, and it is also associated with specific forms of the Internal Revenue Service. Use of this code within the individual's IMF is described in IRS Publication 6209. Section 2 of Publication 6209 describes the association of specific IRS forms with Tax Class codes. You can order a copy of IRS Pub. 6209 from Freedom Law School at <http://www.livefreenow.com/>. Interestingly, NOWHERE in Publication 6209 are the simple Tax Class codes defined, even though they are used extensively in that document, and furthermore, at the bottom of every page, it says "FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY". This is double speak that really says the IRS doesn't want this book getting into the hands of tax freedom fighters, which is why they keep the "secret decoder ring" (the Tax Class Codes) separated from the code listing and in other innocuous publications no one seems to be able to get ahold of!

Below is a summary of the Tax Class codes for specific forms, derived directly from Section 2 of IRS Publication 6209. It ought to be clear examining the codes below that your employment tax authorized by the W-4 form is actually a gift or estate tax, and NOT an income tax, because it uses Tax Class 5!

Form	Title	Tax Class
W-2	Wage and Tax Statement	5
W-4	Employee's Withholding Certificate	5
W-4E	Exemption from Withholding Allowance Certificate	5
W-4V	Voluntary Withholding Request	5
706	United States Estate Tax Return	5, *6
1040	U.S. Individual Income Tax Return	2, *6
1041	U.S. Fiduciary Income Tax Return (for Estates and Trusts)	2, *6
1099-INT	Statement for Receipts of Interest Income	5
1099-MISC	Statement for Receipts of Miscellaneous Income	5
1120	U.S. Corporation Income Tax Return	3, *6

Taxpayer: The term "taxpayer" means any person who is either liable to pay an any internal revenue tax or who isn't liable but "volunteers" to pay anyway. Read section 3.6.1.15 for further explanation.

United States:

"This term has several meanings. It may be merely the name of a sovereign occupying the position analogous to that of other sovereigns in family of nations, it may designate territory over which sovereignty of the United States extends, or it may be collective name of the states which are united by and under the Constitution. Hooven & Allison Co. v. Evatt, U.S. v. Ohio, 324 U.S. 652, 65 S.Ct. 870, 880, 89 L.Ed. 1252." [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1533]

The term was conveniently removed from Black's Law Dictionary Seventh Edition by a legal profession that wants to hide the truth and sell you into slavery to the U.S. government by unlawfully extending the jurisdiction for personal income taxes outside the federal zone. Look on the IRS website for this definition...you won't find it because they don't want you to know.)

TITLE 26--INTERNAL REVENUE

CHAPTER 1--INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE, DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Sec. 1.911-2 Qualified individuals.

(g) United States. The term "United States" when used in a geographical sense includes any territory under the sovereignty of the United States. It includes the states, the District of Columbia, the possessions and territories of the United States, the territorial waters of the United States, the air space over the United States, and the seabed and subsoil of those submarine areas which are adjacent to the territorial waters of the United States and over which the United States has exclusive rights, in accordance with international law, with respect to the exploration and exploitation of natural resources.

U.S. citizen: defined in 26 CFR §1.1-1 and 8 U.S.C. §1401. In the context of federal statutes: Means a person born or naturalized in the federal United States (federal zone) and a subject citizen of Congress. Typically, the U.S. government allows "U.S. nationals", who are persons born outside the federal zone and inside the 50 states to declare that they are "U.S. citizens" so that they can volunteer to become completely subject to the jurisdiction of the federal courts and become the proper subjects of the Internal Revenue Code, but technically, they are not "U.S. citizens" as legally defined within nearly all federal legislation and statutes. "U.S. citizens" are possessors of statutory 'civil' rights and privileges granted by Congress and stipulated by statute, code or regulation, found mostly in 48 U.S.C. §1421b.

U.S. person: this term is defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(30) as follows:

7 (ii) one or more United States persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust.

8 voluntary:

9 “Unconstrained by interference; unimpelled by another’s influence; spontaneous; acting of oneself. Coker v. State,
10 199 Ga. 20, 33 S.E.2d 171, 174. Done by design or intention. Proceeding from the free and unrestrained will of the 11 person. Produced in or by an act of choice. Resulting from free choice, without compulsion or solicitation. The 12 word, especially in statutes, often implies knowledge of essential facts. Without valuable consideration; gratuitous, 13 as a voluntary conveyance. Also, having a merely nominal consideration; as, a voluntary deed.”

14 [Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1575]

15 voluntary compliance: An oxymoron meant to confuse taxpayers. Voluntary implies that it is not compelled and that there is 16 no punishment for not doing it. They add the word compliance as a way to confuse the citizens into thinking that 17 they have to do it and will be punished for not doing it. However, when used in the context of income taxes, what it 18 means is that you don't have to comply and don't have to volunteer to pay income taxes.
