DECLARATION OF PAYEE: There is no law that requires an American by birth or an American national to complete a W-9 form or to furnish a social security number to obtain or keep a job. Title 8 USC § 1324b states that "Protected Individuals" (Americans by birth and American nationals) cannot be required by any company to provide specific documents in order to work in the United States. A company can request either item and needs only to sign an affidavit stating that the request has been made. There is no federal or state statute authorizing anyone to determine whether or not the payee is subject to any revenue tax.

I do hereby certify that I am an American by birth or an American national, domiciled in one of the states of the Republic union of 50 united states, consequently a Citizen of the united States of America. I do not live, work, or have income from any source within the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa, or any other Territory or enclave under the sovereignty within the [federal] United States, which entity has its origin and jurisdiction from Article 1, Section 8, Clause 17 of the U.S. Constitution and 26 CFR 1.911-2(g).

I do not derive income from a taxable source as defined in the operation section of 26 CFR 1.861-(f)(i). I am not engaged in a revenue taxable activity/event/commodity. I am outside the venue and not subject to the jurisdiction of 26 U.S.C.
